Cybersecurity in the Retail Sector Webinar

Every day the retail industry is at risk from people who seek to do harm and disrupt the American way of life. As October is National Cybersecurity Awareness Month, this is a timely opportunity to remember the importance of keeping the retail industry safe from cyber threats.

Cybersecurity in the Retail Sector Webinar will provide retail employees and managers with an overview of the cyber threats and vulnerabilities facing the industry. Viewers of the Webinar will gain a heightened sense of the importance of strengthening cybersecurity in the retail workplace.

The Webinar also will review the types of cyber systems and infrastructure used by the retail industry and steps that retail personnel can take to address the unique vulnerabilities to those cyber resources.
