

SUBJECT: Partnering for Critical Infrastructure Preparedness Webinar
Announcement

Partnering for Critical Infrastructure Preparedness

Presenters: Mr. Jim Caverly, Division Director Partnership and Outreach Division, DHS Office of Infrastructure Protection

Mr. Dan Stoneking, Director of the Private Sector Division, Office of External Affairs, DHS Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)

Date: Friday, September 24, 2010 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. (EDT)

Don't miss this opportunity to learn about current initiatives and collaborative efforts to:

- * Enhance public private partnerships with critical infrastructure owners and operators
- * Learn about preparedness initiatives that contribute to critical infrastructure resilience and protection
- * Find out about new programs to promote the engaged partnerships at the regional and local levels

Jim Caverly and Dan Stoneking will discuss current collaboration and joint initiatives to promote preparedness through engaged partnerships with critical infrastructure owners and operators. They will provide an overview of various efforts coordinated jointly by FEMA and the Office of Infrastructure Protection including updates on the Private Sector Preparedness Program (PS-Prep), the work of the Preparedness Task Force, the National Level Exercise Program, and the increased focus on coordination with private sector partners at the regional level.
